LOCAL COMMUNITY SUPPORTS FAIR

Forty-four years ago, the Schnecksville Community Fair got its start as a Fire Company carnival, consisting of hay rides on a 1932 fire truck and a hot dog stand. Today as a full-fledged fair, entertainment, animals, midway glitter and lots of food stands fill the fairgrounds with bumper-to-bumper crowds, blending community traditions with our agricultural roots.

The Schnecksville Community Fair thrives as local people get together to reward one another for their accomplishments, to celebrate their regional differences, and to engage in friendly competition.

The Fair Board cordially invites the community to assist in the production of the fair. A total of nearly seventy-five folks give their time to make the fair happen. This includes the twenty-three officers and board members who work for the love of the fair, not monetary reward. Additional volunteers are always needed in many areas. If you would be willing to assist for just a few hours during the fair, call the volunteer chairman, Sue Soldridge at 484-560-8605.

The community supports the fair in many ways. Our sponsors help us with funding and promotion. To date, we are privileged to have forty-four corporate and individual/family sponsors who have donated funds, gifts, and/or services to the 2024 Fair.

Our special baking contests are held with the help of several organizations. Houser Auctioneers, Schnecksville, is the sponsor of the Youth Cupcake Contest, which takes place on Thursday, June 19 at 5:45 p.m. Supporting the Blue Ribbon Apple Pie Contest is the New Tripoli Bank, New Tripoli. This event will be held on Thursday, June 19, at 6:30 p.m. Our Homemade Chocolate Cake Contest on Saturday, June 21, at 4:00 p.m. is made possible by The Neffs National Bank, Neffs.

Baking Contests

Yocco's, Allentown, is sponsoring the Special Quilt Competition. The winner of each category, Hand Stitched and Machine Quilted, not only receives a Best of Show ribbon, but also a monetary award of $100.00.

Prizes for other competitions have been donated by Grim's Orchard & Family Farms, Breinigsville (Good Housekeeping); Excelsior Flowers, Schnecksville and Sunflower Veterinary Center, Fogelsville (Animal Mardi Gras Supreme Champion); and Travis and Stephanie Fink and Thunder Creek Showstock, Schnecksville (4-H/Ag Ed Overall Showman Winner). In addition, Allbright's Mill, Kempton; Art's Servicer, Allentown; and Stone Ridge Landscape Services, Slatington sponsored t-shirts given to livestock exhibitors.

Chainsaw Carving Demo & Competition

Our chainsaw carving demonstrations and competitions are supported by Snowscapes, Easton.

In the children's area, Wanna Be a Farmer, the fun-filled hands-on ag adventure for kids, is being sponsored by Nestlé Purina PetCare, Allentown and Ironton Telephone, Coplay. The children's Pedal Tractor Pull Contest, held on Saturday, June 21, at 7:00

THANK YOU

Schnecksville Community Fair wishes to express our most sincere gratitude to all the advertisers who made this supplement possible.

Over our many years of operation, we have been very fortunate to have had so many supportive friends.

Our friends include the businesses and organizations who sponsor our premium book, this special edition and activities; the competitive exhibitors, all of whom we are very proud; and the hundreds of volunteers who give their valuable time and talents.

Our biggest debt of gratitude, however, is owed to the public – the thousands of fair-goers who have attended over the years and the new ones who are about to discover us for the first time.

2025 OUR 40TH YEAR!

The Brad Matchett Comedy Hypnotist show, always an audience favorite, is presented by The Pennsylvania Lottery.

The antique tractors/farm equipment area is made possible by Timothy M. Foster, Wells Fargo Advisors, Allentown and Newhard Farms Corn Shed, Coplay.

Our giant ice cream sundae, with samples given out to fairgoers on Saturday, June 21 at 6:30 p.m., is sponsored by Excelsior Farm, Schnecksville; Heidel Hollow Farms, Germansville; KC Stoves & Fireplaces, Alburtis; Timac Agro, Reading; and the Lehigh County Holstein Club, Schnecksville.

The following companies support the fair as a whole: UNFI, Schnecksville; Ironton Auto Body, Coplay; J.P. Mascaro & Sons, Allentown Division; S&G Asphalt Service, Slatington; Cyan Sky Copiers, Schnecksville; Chuck Wagon Drive In, Coplay; Koren Plumbing & Pump Service, Neffs; Shankweiler's Drive-In, Schnecksville; Stew's Tire Center, Schnecksville; Becky's Drive-In, Walnutport; Dave's Vacuum Cleaner Service, Allentown; Everett Plumbing & Heating, Orefield; and Geo. A Kohler & Bro., Whitehall.

Local businesses and individuals also provide or often donate important goods and services for the fair. We'd like to recognize them for their invaluable support: Quakertown Veterinary Clinic, Quakertown; Berger Sanitation, Lehigh Valley; Attorney Robert Johnson; Lehigh Carbon Community College, Schnecksville; M&J Outdoor Services, LLC, Lehigh Valley; and, of course, Community Fire Company #1 of North Whitehall Township.

Another way the local community supports the fair is through advertising in the 150+-page Premium Book. Ads range from $40 to $295. Sixty-three local businesses supported the book. Be sure to pick one up in the exhibit hall or look at it online (www.schnecksvillefair.com) and check out all the ads.

A very big, very sincere THANK YOU goes out to all of the volunteers, sponsors, donors, and advertisers who help make the fair a success each year.

The Schnecksville Fair is a non-profit corporation that has as its focus education and the showcasing of Lehigh Valley agriculture. Schnecksville is located in Lehigh County just seven miles north of Allentown on Route 309, near Lehigh Carbon Community College. Celebrate 40 years of operation with us June 17 to 21, 2025!

FOUR DECADES OF FUN AND MEMORIES

Eighteen hundred acres of orchard -- it was part of a vast agricultural empire built by General Harry Trexler in the early years of the twentieth century. It nearly surrounded the village of Schnecksville. It was perfect orchard land, with sharply rolling hills and a breeze that never quit. The breeze prohibited early season frost from forming on the buds and assured a good crop of peaches, apples, and pears. It was beautiful. The immaculately groomed orchards also provided a way of life for many of the local inhabitants, but the pressures of suburban sprawl and commercial development were becoming too great for the orchards to survive. It was decided to cease orchard operations and market the land for development.

The first party to express an interest in some of the newly available land was the Schnecksville Fire Company. Located at the center of the village, it was growing out of its quarters and had no room for expansion. In 1980, the fire company bought a tract of land a few feet off Main Street and in September of that year, decided to build a large open-air pavilion and hold a carnival to support the building fund. That fall, many of the trees were cleared and a road was graded back to the site of the pavilion, which went up the next spring.

The start of it all – 1980s

A carnival was held in August of 1981, and it featured a unique ride – the bed of a 1932 Ford Fire Truck outfitted with hay bales taking riders around the perimeter of the fire company's new land. It was a hit among both young and old. The Ladies Auxiliary provided lots of home-cooked food and the bands performed on the back of a flatbed trailer supplied by George Husack Trucking. "Pappy," Joe Horwith, was the man in charge and in the end, he reported an income of $4,986.44 to be put against the $23,727.00 price of the pavilion.

The Second Carnival was held in August of 1982. This time, it was a real carnival with rides, popcorn, cotton candy, and games of chance. That fall, Pappy renamed the carnival "The Schnecksville Community Fair." The first "real" Schnecksville Community Fair was held in May of 1983 and was five days long. It had a side-show with live lions and tigers and featured a "fireworks spectacular" on Friday night. Admission was free, but there was a $2.00 donation for parking.

Otto's Amusements provided the midway in 1982 and 1983. In 1984, Nonweiler Amusements and their "Big Ely" Ferris wheel would start a relationship with Schnecksville Fair that would last more than a decade. 1984 was the transition year in which the fair became a "Fair." The committee became a board. Officers were elected. A premium catalog was issued, and application was made for membership in the Pennsylvania State Association of County Fairs. The fair was now in the hands of people who knew absolutely nothing about running a fair. All they could do was learn. And learn, they did, albeit the hard way.

In 1985, the Lehigh County 4-H Stock Club was invited to participate in the fair by bringing their Petting Zoo. They were housed in a large tent that they decorated beautifully inside and out with flowers and split rail fence. A second tent housed the competitive exhibits and a third, a new craft show. Schnecksville Community Fair was beginning to look like a fair.

More good things happened in the middle of the decade. Dale and Naomi Grim came with the 4-H Petting Zoo and offered to organize and run animal exhibits and judging for the fair. They led the fair into the world of animal showmanship in 1986. In the years that followed, the fair would have to build four animal buildings and a covered show ring to provide space for all the animal exhibits. Helping to build most of the buildings was Emory Minnich, who came on board shortly after the Grimms. He also did most of the work on the main stage and single handedly built the livestock office and the ticket booths used at the three entry gates.

Also, Donald Kuntz and Skip Joseph stumbled over some pretty shoddy wiring on the midway, must have felt sorry for the fair, and volunteered their knowledge and services as the fair's electricians. The fair's officers still didn't know what they were doing, but people who did know a thing or two were stepping up and showing the way.

Growth and expansion – 1990s & 2000s

As the nineties progressed, so did the fair. Incorporated as a non-profit in 1991, the fair expanded competitive exhibits with the help of new board member Beverly Gruber and introduced a pay-one-price admission model. A permanent cattle building was erected in 1998. Paul Schwarz served as president of the fair from its humble beginnings until 2004, when he stepped down. At that time, Emory Minnich took the reins.

The growth continued into the 2000s. In 2006, Larry Grim was instrumental in establishing the Keystone State Quarter Midget Race Club, and a track was built at the rear of the property. A modular building, formerly a district judge's office, was revamped to become the new fair office. An addition was added to the show ring in 2007 to accommodate the growing number of exhibitors and classes. 2008 came and 250 feet of midway was paved to make walking and pushing strollers more convenient.

happened and listed winners of the competitive contests. That year also marked the first time the premium book was posted online, with entries accepted through email.

Challenges and continuing forward – 2010s to today

As technology advanced and times changed rapidly, the fair adapted to stay connected with the community. A website for the event/organization was started by Donald Kuntz, Jr. and has been administered by Steven Reppert for the last several years. In 2009, when ticket sales at the small games of chance booth were slow, Michelle and Kevin Minnich established a Facebook page for the Fair. They posted photos of events as they

The grounds and facilities have undergone several changes in more recent history. The Fire Company acquired an additional 52 acres of land in 2011, some of which the fair is able to use for parking, eliminating the need for patrons to cross heavily traveled Route 309. In 2012 and 2014, permanent fencing was installed around the grounds. Because the temporary fencing had to be put up and removed each year and was prone to come down during heavy winds, this made the job of maintaining and securing the grounds much simpler. Another significant challenge was that strait line winds caused the roof of the fire company's main hall to collapse about a week after the fair ended in 2017. Thankfully, no one was hurt and no fire equipment was lost. It took more than a year to rebuild, so for 2018, all the competitive exhibits that were usually on display in air-conditioned comfort had to "camp out" in a large tent in the parking lot that year. Also during this time, the midway by the pavilion up to the ball field was repaved with the help of grant monies.

In 2018, the fair made a major change in patron admission, moving away from the pay-one-price model utilized for nearly 25 years. Fair admission was reduced, and unlimited carnival rides were no longer included. With this change, the fair began a relationship with a new carnival ride and game provider, AEB Amusements from Easton, PA.

The start of the 2020 decade was another difficult time -- due to the global COVID-19 pandemic, the fair was canceled for both 2020 and 2021. The Fair Board had to make some tough decisions balancing the health and safety of all involved and the viability of the fair. In the years since, the board has been focusing on strengthening community ties while adapting and improving the fair in a changing society.

This "era" has been marked by changes in volunteers as well. Debbie Smith joined the board and became Competitive Exhibits Chair in 2014, when Beverly Gruber left to take a role at the Great Allentown Fair. Naomi Grim "handed the reins" of animal showmanship over to the capable hands of Andrea Semmel-Lazarus in 2022. Dennis Haas became president of the fair board in 2024 after Emory Minnich ended his 19-year tenure. Also, several long-time volunteers passed away, leaving the board grateful for their talents and efforts, but also with a need for help to carry on.

From its humble beginnings through to the present, the Schnecksville Community Fair has never wavered in its purpose: to provide several days of family fun and excitement for northwestern Lehigh County and the surrounding communities. From the midway to the food booths, from the competitive exhibit hall to the animal pens, there's something for everyone to see and do. As we "Celebrate 40 years" of the Schnecksville Community Fair, we invite you to join us from June 17 to 21, 2025. Let's commemorate our rich history together!

A SHOWCASE FOR ALL AGES

The 2025 edition of the Schnecksville Community Fair will make its debut when the gates open on Tuesday, June 17th at 5:00 p.m. The fair, now celebrating its 40th year of operation, has become one of the best-attended events in northwestern Lehigh County.

Carnival rides, food, entertainment and animals all come together to make a great attraction, but what makes this Schnecksville event different are the competitive exhibits. Local people compete with each other, whether it's for the best strawberry jam, the loveliest rose, or the foremost dairy beef animal.

Nearly $10,000 in cash was awarded last year in the twenty-four departments of fair competition. This year premiums (cash prizes) were increased for several contests in different departments! Ribbons are awarded to nearly all exhibitors. Ribbon colors and the placement in competition they represent are: 1st place, blue; 2nd, red; and 3rd, white. The big purple ribbon is for "Best of Show."

The amazing thing about the competitive exhibits is that you can be any age to enter, and youngsters don't have to be enrolled in a 4-H program to participate. For example, in 2024, exhibitors ranged in age from elementary school through senior citizens. Also, entries are not limited to residents of Lehigh County; we welcome exhibitors from everywhere! (Special baking contest entrants must be Pennsylvania residents, however.)

This year, competitive departments include animal classes for Dairy, Beef, Goats, Sheep and Rabbits. The individual shows for each species will be held in the 4-H pavilion each evening from Tuesday through Friday. Check the schedule in this publication or on the website (www.schnecksvillefair.com) for times. Back again this year is Animal Mardi Gras, held on Friday night at 8 p.m. -- there's a special prize for the Supreme Champion.

The Food and Canned Goods Department features over 175 different classes of homemade goodies or canned foods that you can enter. This includes everything from a jar of pickles to an apple dumpling. Why not try out your baking skills and win that "Best of Show" big purple ribbon! In addition, four of six of our special baking contests are held at other fairs statewide and winners qualify to enter the 2026 PA Farm Show competitions (top prizes of $500).

The Needlecraft department also has many categories—from afghans to handcrafted clothing and utilizing various techniques like sewing, knitting, crocheting, embroidery, or cross-stitch. In our annual special Quilt Contest, two winners will receive $100 each plus Best of Show ribbons, courtesy of Yocco's. Also, along with other fairs across the state, Schnecksville Community Fair is participating in the America250PA Apron Contest created by the Pennsylvania Association of County Fairs. Exhibitors design and create a kitchen apron celebrating the 250th anniversary of the US and the first place winner will be able to enter theirs in the statewide competition at the 2026 Farm Show (top prize of $250).

The Arts, Photography and Crafts Department is an annual favorite for competitors and fairgoers alike. Scores of beautiful homemade items, paintings and photos are judged. Crafts are put on display and artwork and photos adorn the walls of the exhibit hall. If you have an artistic flair, why not enter and showcase your talent? We would love to have more entries (competition) in diamond painting, stained glass, leather work, scherenschnitte, tole painting, china painting, needle felting, and decorative gnome classes/categories!

If you can boast that you have a green thumb, the Vegetable, Hay and Grain, Edible Nuts, Fruits and Berry, Horticulture or Christmas Tree Departments are for you. All of these departments have sections in which you could be a winner.

The Youth department is for anyone under the age of 19. There are several sections with entries for a variety of items that kids have made or grown themselves, like vegetables, fruits and nuts, baked goods, plants, floral arrangements, needlecrafts, photography, and art. There is even a department for Lego creations!

The fair is also working hard to ensure that everyone has the opportunity to take part in competitive exhibits. Special sections just for differently-abled children and adults have been added to the premium book. Those with mental or physical limitations can enter photos, paintings, drawings, and handcrafts in special categories.

When you visit the fair this year, don't forget to stop and check out the competitive exhibits on display and be sure to visit the animals in the livestock area. Agricultural fairs are fun places to visit, but they are even more fun when you participate and win. The premium book, which lists everything you may enter and the amount of prizes awarded, is available by calling 610-799-9467. You can also pick one up in various retail stores in the Schnecksville area. A listing of stores and the entire book are available online at www.schnecksvillefair.com.

IT'S YOUR LIFE
IT'S OUR LAW

Agriculture is the cornerstone of the fair industry. It is the one main attraction that makes fairs different from other entertainment venues, and farm animals are the mainstay of the Schnecksville Community Fair.

We expect that there will be over 100 dairy cattle, beef cattle, sheep, goats, and rabbits in the livestock barns this year. Many of these animals, which are entered in livestock competition, are owned and shown by 4-H members from all over southeastern Pennsylvania. The 4-H program, which is administered by Penn State Cooperative Extension, teaches youth age 8-18 to be future leaders. A child's dedication to their animal, whether it be a rabbit or an eleven hundred pound steer is a special bond. This bond helps make the daily tasks of feeding and caring for the animal go more smoothly. The end result of the program is the responsibility that the 4-H'er has learned.

The 4-H-ers also organize and work in the 4-H Livestock Experience at the fair. This year the livestock display will feature goats, dairy calf, and sheep. They do a great job landscaping the area and encourage all youngsters to stop in and check out the animals.

Education is an important way to maintain the viability of Pennsylvania agriculture. Informing the consumer where their food and fiber comes from, and how it gets to them, is critical if Pennsylvania agriculture is to prosper.

The fair is one of many venues that can play a role in educating the public about agriculture. Fairs throughout history have been a reflection of the people and their times, as well as an agent of change. Fairs are also one of the few places left where a large number of people can view a broad spectrum of agriculture.

A different species of animal is featured each evening in the Show Ring Pavilion in Schnecksville. Tuesday is dairy night, which starts at 7 pm; Wednesday are both sheep and rabbits at 6:00; Thursday is steer and dairy beef at 6:00; and Friday is market goats at 5:00, followed by breeding meat and dairy goats.

Although not a "real" cow, you can learn how to milk a "pretend" cow in the "Wanna Be a Farmer" tent at the fair. Volunteer Darlene Wirth and her crew man the tent that is geared to youngsters under the age of eight. Many other farm-related activities are also available.

So load the kids in the car, and come to the 2025 Schnecksville Community Fair from June 17-21. It's a fun learning experience for the whole family!

GREAT FOOD IS A HIGHLIGHT OF THE SCHNECKSVILLE FAIR

With fun, things to see, bright lights on the midway and great entertainment to watch, there is plenty to love about the 2025 Schnecksville Community Fair, and we haven't even mentioned food!

Food plays a big role in the reason people love fairs. The wonderful aroma coming from the many different food stands is tantalizing. It's hard to decide with such a variety to choose from. Out on the midway we have it all...hot sausage, burgers, tacos, pizza, fresh cut French fries, pit beef, pulled pork, and of course cotton candy, ice cream, candy apples and fresh-squeezed lemonade.

Because we are in Schnecksville, we have Pennsylvania Dutch food at our Fire Company Café in the Pavilion, in the center of the fairgrounds. A crew of workers from the Fire Company manages the Café, does all the preparation work, and serves all of the patrons. These volunteers get great satisfaction from helping and take pride not only in their community but also in the tradition of fairs. Featured menu items for the week include cheesesteaks on Tuesday; open-faced hot roast beef sandwich on Wednesday; tacos on Thursday; clam bake and crab cakes on Friday; and chicken barbecue on Saturday.

Don't miss out on the great food at the Schnecksville Community Fair, being held June 17-21 at the Schnecksville Fire Company on Route 309 near Lehigh Carbon Community College. We guarantee you won't leave hungry!
